DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 31 October 2007 has been entered.

Claim Status

Claims 1-5, 7, 9, and 15 remain pending and are ready for examination.

Specification

The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: Independent claims 1, 7, 9, and 15, recite 'a processor that is coupled to the interface circuit, the processor including: a rewriter; and a rewriter activation section.' Referring back to Applicant's specification, page 11, the Examiner would like to draw attention to lines 20-24 where insofar as it appears to be clear, the firmware comprises the above-recited features of a rewriter and a rewriter activation section, not the processor as instantly claimed. This is further illustrated in Figure 6, where Firmware (F/W) item 50 includes the above-recited features.

Further, the abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it does not meet the requirements of providing a concise statement of the present invention. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Applicant is reminded of the proper content of an abstract of the disclosure.

A patent abstract is a concise statement of the technical disclosure of the patent and should include that which is new in the art to which the invention pertains. If the patent is of a basic nature, the entire technical disclosure may be new in the art, and the abstract should be directed to the entire disclosure. If the patent is in the nature of an improvement in an old apparatus, process, product, or composition, the abstract should include the technical disclosure of the improvement. In certain patents, particularly those for compounds and compositions, wherein the process for making and/or the use thereof are not obvious, the abstract should set forth a process for making and/or use thereof. If the new technical disclosure involves modifications or alternatives, the abstract should mention by way of example the preferred modification or alternative.

The abstract should not refer to purported merits or speculative applications of the invention and should not compare the invention with the prior art.

Where applicable, the abstract should include the following:

- (1) if a machine or apparatus, its organization and operation;
- (2) if an article, its method of making;
- (3) if a chemical compound, its identity and use;
- (4) if a mixture, its ingredients;
- (5) if a process, the steps.

Extensive mechanical and design details of apparatus should not be given.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 2187

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-5, 7, 9, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Independent claims 1, 7, 9, and 15, recite 'a processor that is coupled to the interface circuit, the processor including: a rewriter; and a rewriter activation section.' Referring back to Applicant's specification, page 11, the Examiner would like to draw attention to lines 20-24 where insofar as it appears to be clear, the firmware comprises the above-recited features of a rewriter and a rewriter activation section, not the processor as instantly claimed. Accordingly, the Examiner is having difficulty locating support the claim limitation.

Any claim not specifically addressed is rejected at least by virtue of its dependency.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-5, 7, 9, and 15 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 1st paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
